Admiral Chan in reply said had, 20 years ago, built for his Navy the Gunboat "Lungshan" which had done and was still doing excellent service in shallow draft work, and he now had great pleasure in complimenting this firm upon the two vessels just launched.

Admiral Chan stressed the necessity of such vessels in the suppression of piracy and disorder, and he felt that by building such vessels Hong Kong was assisting Canton to protect trade to their mutual advantage and thereby promote good feeling between them. Admiral Chan then proposed the health of the builders which was duly hon-

Mr. Bailey's Tribute Mr. Bailey acknowledging the toast paid a tribute to his excellent staff both Enropean and Chinese, responsible for the successful building of the vessels, some of the Chinese No. 1's had been in his firm nearly 80 years and had assisted in building the river steamers "Kwong Sai," "Kwong Tung" and many other old time vessels still running well. In our case, the success should be guaged by the numbers that care to attend and not by the "gate receipts." The Navy, as we know, sends ships on "showing the flag" cruises; likewise can we "show the flag" in Hong Kong with our regimental musical talent. Much may be gained and little, if anything, lost. Primarily, of course, it is the business of our European communities to make this splendid idea a material—and a continuous-fact.

'RIFT IN THE LUTE"

AN UNPLEASANT SEQUEL IN COURT

A Chinese couple, a man and his concubine, brought cross-charges against each other, before Mr. R. E. Lindsell at the Central Magistracy, yesterday.

According to a police statement the couple separated after a dispute, and both complained of an unfair division of the property. His Worship found that there was no criminal intent, and dismissed both charges. An order was made for the return of the clothing to the woman and of the furniture to the man.

Mr. F. X. d'Almada e Castro, Jnr., appeared for the husband, and Mr. A. E. Hall for the woman. A man who leased a farmhouse and shootings near Nairn has been alleged to have been committed in ber of the Club's bowlers. London, Portsmouth, Worthing, Great Yarmouth, and other places in England.

MR. G. WRAGGE

A MEMBER OF THE K.C.C.

LEAVES FOR HOME

When the Blue Funnel "Patroclus" sailed from Hong Kong yesterday afternoon, she had on board Mr. G. Wragge, a member of the staff of Messrs. E. D. Sassoon & Co., Ltd., who is travelling Home and will not return to the Colony.

Since his arrival in Hong Kong nearly three years ago, Mr. Wragge had been a prominent supporter of the Kowloon Cricket Club, and was given a fitting send off by many of his fellow members, who gathered on board the ship to wish him good. luck and a bon voyage.

Mr. Wragge, who took particular Interest in Lawn Bowls, served last year on the K.C.C.'s Lawn Bowls Sub-Committee, and had played for the Club in the Bowls League for the past three seasons. He won four trophies during the 1927 annual tournament, and his name appears on the list of Bowls Championship winners of the Club.

Before Mr. Wragge's departure, an opportunity was taken to express : 2 4 the K.C.C.'s appreciation and good wishes at a little function arranged at the Club-house, where Mr. R. E. Lindsell (President of the Club), on behalf of the members, presented Mr. Wragge with a silver tea

The Presentation

In making the presentation, Mr. Lindsell said that there was a feeling of pleasure in doing some small honour to a good and strong supporter of the Club—a feeling which was mingled with regret that .. Mr. Wragge was leaving them. Wragge, had distinguished himself especially at bowls, at which he had set a standard that had undoubtedly arrested there on charges of fraud been an inspiration to a large num-

Mr. Wrngge's Reply After the presentation, a toast to Mr. Wragge's health was drunk with musical honours.

In returning thanks, Mr. Wragge said that he could not overlook the fact that he was a comparatively new member, and the thought that he had gained his fellow members' esteem in the short period of two and a half years, to the extent of being made the recipient of a very valuable present, was very gratifying to him.

Jore de Leon Toral, right, the assassin of General Obregon, President-elect of Mexico, being examined by judges in Mexico City, where he was held on the charge of murder. The young artist-assassin, since his arrest, has maintained a "don't care" attitude.

Speaking of bowls, Mr. Wragge urged that Saturday afternoon games should be taken much more seriously. They must not be regarded as a sort of pleasant Saturday afternoon outing. . They must have keenness and enthusiasm. He trusted that next year the K.C.C. would finish on top of the League. They had the players, and if they would all put their hearts into it, he saw no reason why they should not get to the top. (Ap-

KOWLOON TONG MALARIA STATEMENTS

MILK IN CHINESE SHOPS

Official replies to questions anent the alleged existence of malaria fever at Kowloon Tong and an adverse decision on an application to sell fresh milk in a Chinese shop were features of the meeting of the Sanitary Board Yesterday.

Those present were Mr. G. R. Sayer (president), the Hon. Mr. H. T. Creasy (Director of Public Works), Dr. G. W. Pope (Medical Officer of Health), Dr. W. V. M. Koch, Dr. S. C. Ho, Dr. S. W. Tso, O.B.E., LL.D., Mr. J. P. Braga, Mr. Wong Kwong-tin, Mr. J. Watson (secretary).
